FOREHAND WON LIKE A GOOD COLT

Son of Handsel Refused to Be Beaten by Clifton Forge and Stood Long Drive Gamely.

BAD RIDE ON FOUR LEAF C.

Wolff Took the Favorite in Fifth Race Back From Good Position. Put Her in Worst Going and Kept Her There All Way.

Forehand, by Handsel, of the line of Han over and Hindoo, won a nice race at Delmar Park yesterday like a good colt. He was second choice to Major Pelham in the betting and closed at 3 to 1.

To a good start Sire Bros.' Clifton Forge shot to the front. He soon established a lead of five lengths and carried his speed well. Tom Kiley and Forehand pursued him valiantly to the stretch head. Here Kiley gave way.

The pace had been hot, considering the lumpy and slow track. Forehand seemed to have been run dizzy, too. Not so, how Turning for home it seemed that Clifton Forge would win. The others were tired. Forehand, however, would not give way. Plainly weary, he kept at it with great resolution, as much as to say: "I will not be beaten."

Bridwell drew his whip at the eighth pole. The colt answered with great gameness. At the last seventy-yard pole he caught Clifton Forge, drew up and got his nose in front, Then Bridwell wisely laid down his whip and helped the tired colt home. Major Pelham ran a dull race into third place.

Forehand acted like a clever colt. He is not big and scarce can carry weight, but he is eager and hates to be beaten. Bridwell rode him a good race. Clifton Forge set a really very fast pace, but tired in the last sixteenth. The Sires backed him all over the country and in the ring from 20 to 1 to 6 to 1. He was just a bit short and will be hard to beat hereafter. WOLF'S BAD RIDE

Jockey Wolff's ride on Four Leaf C. in the fifth race was not "efficient," to say the least. The mare broke last in a field of seven. She had her best speed, shot around her horses in the first sixteenth, swung the turn in third position, and had the best going on the outside. She had a perfect position. But Wolff took her back to sixth place, pulled her down into the had going on the rail, and kept her there all the res of the way. In the stretch he took her back every time he got a horse between him and the finish, and generally gave her a bad ride. The mare was good, and with a competent ride would have won by many

Miss West won the race, with Nearest a close second. Nearest would probably have won in another stride. She did not isplay her usual speed at the start, but losed up well. Four Leaf's bad race evidently upset everything.

In the second race Jockeys A. Lines,
Travers and D. Vititoe had a spill on the back stretch. None were seriously hurt. The track is full of holes about the halfmile ground and should be fixed up. Horses are falling there every day.

JORDAN SHOULD WIN STAKE EVENT

Hayes's Black Horse Will Probably Bent Fitzkanet and Miss Golightly. On his race with Be True, Charles C. should win the first event at Delmar today. He should have beaten Be True that day, and that horse has won many races since that time. If it is muddy Jerry Hunt will win, and in any case he will run a good race. He will be good and fresh and will like the track. Doctor Clark has a good charce, but he runs as well with the good charce, but he runs as well with 120 up as with 98. GREATEST CONTEST OF YEAR EXPECTED.

McChesney-Waterboy Race at Brighton Beach Should Result in New World's Record.

BACKERS ARE EVENLY DIVIDED.

Smathers Is Said to Be Prepared to Bet Ninety Thousand Dollars on His Chestnut Wonder.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

New York, July 17.—The match race be-tween McChesney, champion 4-year-old of the West, and Waterboy, the star of the East, arranged to be run at Brighton Beach ext Wednesday, will be one of the greatest turf contests ever seen.

McChesney arrived here to-night. He will be quartered and his final preparatory trials given him at Sheepshead Bay. McChesney traveled in great style, having every comfort possible to make his trip an agreeable one. He was accompanied by Irene Lindsay, a mare bought by Mr. Smathers from McChesney's trainer, Sam Hildreth, Hildreth had charge of the horses, but as he has been unable to secure a trainer's license from the Jockey Club, McChesney will be turned over to Frank Taylor, Hildreth's brother-in-law, who trains at Sheepshead

The two great horses are now at their best, the Brighton Beach track is one of the fastest in the world, and the Metropolitan public is the most generous and enthusiastic multitude of race-goers on earth. Given a good day and track, conditions called for by the terms of the race agreement, and the greatest crowd that ever saw a race in the East will be present.

WORLD'S RECORD EXPECTED A new world's record is almost certain to be set for the distance, in view of the fact that Waterboy, one of the contestants, set the present mark of 2:04 1-5 on the same track only ten days ago, when he was not extended to the limit.

The conditions of the contest do not necessarily limit the entries to Waterboy and McChesney. It is open to horses 2 years old and upward. This lets in Africander, if that great 3-year-old's owner sees fit to enter the sweepstakes, and Irish Lad is also eligible if his owners see fit to bring him down from Saratoga for the race. The concitions are as follows:

"The Championship Special—To be run Wednesslay, July 22, given a good day and track. A weight for age race for horses 3 years old or over, by subscription of $500 each, or $50 if declared out by 2 p. m. on Tuesday next. Waterboy and McChesney to go or no race. The Brighton Beach Racing Association to add $10,000. Mile and a quarter."

As the race is open for any other borse. that Waterboy, one of the contestants, set ing Association to add $10,000. Mile and a quarter."

As the race is open for any other horse, there was much talk of other possible candidates. Most of this centered about the 3-year-olds Africander and Irlsh Lad, the acknowledged champions of their age in the East and about the only thoroughbreds hereabouts to be thought of in the same class with McChesney and Waterboy.

Irlsh Lad, the Brooklyn Handicap winner and the jinner-up to Waterboy in the Suburban renewal, is at Saratoga and will not start, and Charles F. Dwyer and Sim Delmel, who own Africander, the winner of the Suburban, have decided not to start their game coil. It is not at all improbable, though, that Claude, winner of the Canadian Derby a few days ago and who has a faculty for getting away with big events, will start. He is now at Fort Erie and may be sent to Brooklyn to try for the championship. plonship.

PUBLIC DIVIDED. The public is sure to be divided as to the merits of Waterboy and McChesney. Each has a multitude of partisans and both have been recognized as being in the same class as Salvator, Tenny, Henry of Navarre, Domino and Hamburg, champions of past The full capability of neither of them has

The full capability of neither of them has been satisfactorily tested. McChesney has been beaten, it is true, but never without some satisfactorily tested. McChesney has been beaten, it is true, but never without some satisfactory excuse. He has run some wonderful races and carried the limit of weight at all distances and beaten the best opposed to him in the West.

Waterboy, on the other hand, is the equine wonder of the age. All during his three years he has been mending a broken bone, having for three months been tied up in a stall, while the bone was setting, while it was a toss-up whether or not he should be shot as a hopeless cripple. Science triumphed, however, and this year as a 4-year old Waterboy broke the record for a mile and a quarter. Good judges say that the horse is enforced rest for a year at the critical age of a race horse, gave him well-hardened bones, highly developed muscles and a sound constitution, that will enable him to become the horse of the decade. No severer test could have been arranged than the coming tussel with McChesney.

At weight for age, McChesney and Waterboy will each carry 125 pounds in the big race, while the scale calls for 114 pounds for a 3-year-old. George Odem will ride Waterboy, and John Bullman will have the mount on the Westerner.

ODOM CONFIDENT. "I am a little surprised that this race between Waterboy and McChesney has been arranged," said George Odom, "But I have BETTING PROPOSITION. Mr. Smathers is now speeding from Chi-Mr. Smathers is now speeding from Chicago, and when he reaches the city in the morning he will be prepared to make a statement regarding the amount of money he will bet on the event. Mr. Smathers is one of the greatest plungers on the running and trotting turf to-day. Just how much money he will bet on the coming match no one knows, although it is sufe to say that the meeting of McCherney and Waterboy will be made a memorable one from a betting standpoint.

owner, M. H. H. Helenor. Schwalbe set the with good ones at Chicago, but McDanleis says that the sharp turns and poor footing at Delmar did not seem to suit him last time he started. He bet on him that day and he ran a bad last. He may have learned the track since and may do better this afternoon. Wigwam is getting right to a race and should not be let escape at a price. Hugh McGowan ran a fair one has time. He was not so good as others behind him were bad, however. Mat Wadleigh will run an improved race and Check Morgan will be right there.

badly, holding them down to five hits and fanning twelve, and then, by way of variety, he vaulted into the grand stand at the end of the seventh inning and yanked out a spectator who had been annoying him. Foul names and epithets of all kinds were more than the "Rube" could stand, especially as his young bride and his father were in the pavillon. "Rube" had just struck out the last man when he heard his tormentor yell: "Take blm out." "I'll take you out,' replied Waddell, and with the assistance of several special officers and players of both teams the offender was marched from the grounds. After consulting with President Ban Johnson, who was in the upper stand. Umpire Hassett decided that no action would be taken and the game proceeded.

There was not much to the game. Waddell was good, as were the men behind him. For a brief interval in the second inning he temporarily lost the location of the plate, sending three men to first on balls in succession and forcing Wallace over the plate, with the only run made by the

Two strikes were called on Seybold, when he hit safely to center, scoring Pickering and Davis. When Waddell came to the plate in the seventh, after the episode in the stand, he was given a royal reception, and he responded with a double to center. Pickering drew a base on balls, Davis trying to sacrifice, hit to Evans, who made a poor throw to Anderson. Lave Cross hit a
